

Judge Fritsch is the Administrative Judge of the Orphans' Court of the Bucks County Court of Common Pleas. Before joining the Bucks County Bench in 2004, he was a partner in the Langhorne law firm of Wood and Floge. From 1986 to 2001, he served as the Chief Deputy District Attorney in Bucks County. Judge Fritsch is a former board member of TODAY, Inc., and Probation Volunteer Services (now VITA), and has been a guest lecturer at Temple University and the Bucks County Community College. He is also past President of the Bucks County Inns of Court. He frequently serves as a panel member and presenter for PBI continuing legal education seminars.

He received his J.D. degree from the Dickinson School of Law and his BA from Denison University.